

Moozie Shares About Friendship

Objective: to learn the qualities of friendship

Moozie was eating grass in the pasture one day when another cow walked over and “moo-ed”.

She was sad because she didn’t have a friend.

She had noticed that everyone liked Moozie.

Moozie said she could give her some advice about friends.

Moozie said to smile. Your face looks happy when you smile.

Say hello to others.

Tell them your name and ask their name .

Ask to play with them.

Use your words as you play .

You can have more than 1 friend. Having more friends means more fun.

You can have different friends at home, sports, church, and family.

If you don’t want to play, use your words and say, “I’ll play with you another time”.

The cow smiled at Moozie and asked if she could walk in line with her to the barn tonight.

Moozie said, “Yes! I would love to walk with you”.

The new friends walked and moo-ed all the way to the barn.

Have fun making and playing with your new friends.
