

Moozie Searches for Kind Acts

There was a cow named Moozie,
Who was kind and sweet;
She would search for an act of kindness
Even down a busy street!

One day while on the road
She found an injured pet;
But she also saw a small boy,
Who was calling for a vet.
Moozie saw this good deed,
And thought this act was kind,
She looked at the small boy,
And remembered him in her mind.

Moozie continued her journey,
Through the stinging bees;
Until she found an act of kindness,
Where a girl was caring for the trees,
Moozie noticed this act,
And was satisfied and pleased,
She noted the girl and moved on,
With her mind at ease.

Moozie pushed through the knotted grass,
Wishing to be lifted up with a pulley,
But soon she found a village,
Where a boy was protecting a friend from a bully.

Moozie saw this act,
And was very delighted too,
She made a note of the boy,
And moved on to somewhere new.

Moozie searched and searched,
And soon found an act,
Where a girl was telling herself good things,
Which made a positive impact.
Moozie was very thrilled at the sight,
And also was delighted,
She made note of the girl,
And moved from where the girl had recited.

Moozie was very happy,
And continued to look for an act that was new,
She is still searching till this day,
Can she find an act from you?
